

The Viera Studio for the Performing Arts
Fall 2018 Special Edition Classes and Workshops

Show Production August 20th-December 17th

Mondays 6-7pm

One time tuition $250 Instructor: Ms. Jenora

Do you want to be a part of putting on a holiday show? In this workshop you will not only get to act in a holiday show, but also learn about costumes, sets, marketing and sound effect work! Students can work on one side of the production or be as involved as they want. The show will be presented in December and will be a huge event for the public to come see!

Creative Playwriting September 6th-October 11th

Thursdays 4:15-5pm Ages 7-12

One time tuition $125 Instructor: Ms. Corey

This is an excellent introductory class to the wonderful world of writing! Does your child have a BIG imagination? Are they often found creating inventive, original worlds, stories, and characters? During this 6-Week workshop, through exciting games and group activities, we'll be focusing on writing fundamentals like:

- 1) Character Building*
- 2) Storylines and genres*
- 3) Play/Script structure*

And more! Not only that, but we'll be working on the importance of using your imagination, working together to make a story come to life.

Art of the Antagonist October 18th-November 8th

Thursdays 8-8:45pm Ages 10+

One time tuition $100 Instructor: Ms. Corey

Have you ever dreamed of being the Big Bad in that local musical? Or do you just always feel stuck in type as the 'Ingénue' and want to break out of that mold? This fun, intensive workshop is designed to work on body presence, confidence, and character choices that lead to big, bold, and exciting reactions. In breaking type and knocking aside your performing habits, this will strengthen not only your performances, but your auditions as well.

Acting Intensive September 13th-December 13th

Thursdays 6-7pm Based on experience

One time tuition $195 Instructor: Ms. Jenora

Acting Intensive is for those students who want to work with going beyond the basics of acting and study the complexities of how a character comes to life. They will learn how to create movement, use the senses and apply historical and present research. Actors will work on a high school to college level of acting, and must be ready to delve deeper into the techniques of acting.

Music Theory: Sight Singing and Music Composition September 10th-October 18th

Ages 10+ Mondays 6-7pm Ages 7-9 Thursdays 5-6pm

One time tuition $175 Instructor: Ms. Jenn

In this six week workshop, Ms. Jenn will be using her most hands on approach to music theory yet! The students will work together on a project to compose their very own original song! Using blank sheet music, they will learn how to write the notes and the rest of the song they create, as well as notating basic musical terminology. At the end of the six weeks, they will perform their song and demonstrate other basics of sight singing in an in-class performance for their parents.

Rainbow Project Coming in September!

Ages 12+ Instructor: Ms. Corey

RAINBOW PROJECT will be a club/committee of students age 12 and up that focuses on creating a bright, colorful, safe, and youth oriented space within the Viera Studio walls and the community! We are looking for dedicated, loving, and open-minded people to join us bi-monthly for snacks and help on creating a bigger, brighter future. Meets one Wednesday a month and the last Friday of each month.

Expect to be planning:

- Youth oriented events (ex. Musical Movie Night, Jazzy Fun-Run marathons, an open mic day, etc)
- Fundraisers for any projects you feel passionate about.

Expect to be learning:

- valuable leadership skills
- Empathy and compassion skills
- Self-esteem and confidence skills

Expect to:

- Volunteer your time for worthwhile charities and non-profits (SPCA, Trevor Project, Environmental groups).
- Find happy, supportive peers who are here for you no matter what!
- Enjoy some pizza and have FUN!
